

Proposed Resolution Opposing the Con-Con

Whereas the 106th Tennessee Legislature rescinded its former approval of any effort to organize and conduct a Constitutional Convention in order to change the U. S. Constitution and

Whereas Article V of the U. S. Constitution mentions only amendments (plural) when outlining the steps necessary for a change using the Constitutional Convention method and

Whereas there remains no guarantee that a Constitutional Convention can be limited to one or a specifically defined area

Therefore the State Executive Committee of the Tennessee Republican Party applauds the wisdom of the 106th in its effort to protect the U. S. Constitution and urges the 107th to continue in the same path.
